OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD INFORMATION

October 18th – Operation Christmas Child Team Meeting Today!

Hillcrest Baptist is a drop off for the community to collect Operation Christmas Child Boxes the week of November 16th–23rd. Those that signed up for the Team to help will be meeting today in the Mosaic Classroom following morning worship.

Boxes for Hillcrest are in the hallways and front and back of the Church. Take a box, and as you fill it, pray that the child to receive your special Christmas gift will learn about Jesus! We will be collecting boxes from Hillcrest no later than November 22nd.

Discover how God used an Operation Christmas Child shoebox in my life ...

In a country hostile to the Gospel, Joseph's dad left his successful family business to serve full time in Christian ministry. This led his family to trust God through financial insecurity and depend on Him to provide for their daily needs. Growing up, Joseph had several near-death experiences—from an electrocution accident to a monkey attack—yet God protected him through it all. When he was 10, Joseph attended an outreach event at his local church where he received an Operation Christmas Child shoebox gift! Come hear how Joseph felt the personal love of God through his shoebox gift.

"This shoebox is not just a gift, but a box full of God's love."
